March Events

Adults

Bees Besieged: A History of Beekeeping, Wednesday, March 13, at 6:30 pm. Join Bill Mares for this Vermont Humanities Council Speakers Bureau event. Bill Mares, writer and beekeeper for 45 years, will tell of the origins and evolution of beekeeping with a particular emphasis on his research in Vermont.

Cookbook Club, Wednesday, March 6, 6:00 pm, with Bill Wargo. Featuring Sameen Rushdie's Indian Cookery. Please preregister for this monthly library potluck.

English Conversation, Mondays at 12:00 pm. Practice your English and make new friends in this ongoing ESL discussion group. Program led by Tricia Griffith. No meeting on March 11.

Evening Book Discussion, Thursday, March 28, at 6:30 pm. Join us as we discuss Our Souls at Night by Kent Haruf. Books are available in advance at the circulation desk.

Friends of the Library (FOL) Meeting, Monday, March 11, at 10:15 am at the library.

Great Decisions, Thursday, March 7, at 6:00 pm. Join us for this moderated discussion of "The Middle East: Regional Disorder." Participants should read this month's article, written by Lawrence G. Potter, in the briefing book prior to attending the session. A copy is available for in-library use. Program led by Bernie Carver.

Knitter's Group, Wednesdays, 6:30 pm. Bring your latest project to share with other knitters or get help with challenging patterns. All skill levels welcome!

League of Women Voters Champlain Valley Chapter Civic Education Series: Redistricting or Gerrymandering? The Challenge of Drawing Fair Lines, Thursday, March 21, at 6:30 pm. Come hear Tom Little, a former State Representative and past chair of the Vermont Legislative Apportionment Board, speak on the topic of redistricting in Vermont.

Legislative Forum, Monday, March 25, at 6:30 pm. Join State Representatives Ann Pugh, Maida Townsend, Martin LaLonde and John Killacky along with Senator Michael Sirotkin and moderator Vince Bolduc to discuss what's being debated in the Statehouse this year.

Library Board of Trustees Meeting, Thursday, March 14, at 5:00 pm. Open to the public.

Morning Book Discussion, Thursday, March 14, at 10:30 am at The Pines Senior Community, 7 Aspen Drive, in the Champlain Room. This month we will discuss Dandelion Wine by Ray Bradbury.

What's All the Hype about CBD? Tuesday, March 19, at 6:00pm. Are you seeing CBD products everywhere, but are not quite sure what they are or how to use them? Join Michele Wildflower, owner of Nature's Mysteries Apothecary and clinical cannabinoid clinician, for a workshop on CBD and cannabis. In this workshop Michele will discuss history and background, uses, extraction methods, and medical condition research. There will be time for questions.

Children

School Vacation Week Activities Continue through March 4
